Tucked at the end of a cul-de-sac, this fully remodeled Ozark estate rests on approximately five acres along the seventh hole of Millwood Golf Course. Mature trees frame the grounds and create a sense of seclusion, while the fenced backyard borders the course. The setting feels quietly removed, with town amenities and medical facilities close by.Expansive windows fill the interiors with natural light and keep the surrounding landscape in view. The enclosed sunroom offers a quiet place to linger over morning coffee, while the upper-level concrete deck provides an open-air setting for an evening drink or time with guests. Inside, the home's generous proportions give everyday living and entertaining room of their own.The four-bedroom residence includes a primary suite with heated bathroom floors and two upstairs bedrooms connected by a Jack-and-Jill bath. A dedicated soundproof office offers privacy for focused work, and a hardwired whole-home audio system carries music throughout the residence. Schedule your private showing today!
