Timeless craftsmanship meets modern comfort in this stunning custom-built log home perched to capture serene views of beautiful Table Rock Lake. Often hard to find, a 10x24 boat slip is available with the home for extra dollars. The authentic log construction, with original reclaimed Amish wood floors and full beams sourced from Pennsylvania, highlight the beauty and rustic elegance of this unique property. The main level fireplace crafted from Arkansas stone brings rustic luxury and warmth throughout, while the Chef's kitchen, lovingly designed with a Tuscan vineyard ambiance, is both functional and inviting. The expansive master suite offers a tranquil retreat with bonus space for an office or sitting area. In addition, the fully screened (even below the flooring) deck adds comfort and privacy to the master suite. Upstairs, the open loft area adds space and character, perfect for a cozy reading nook, guest lounge or game area. Just down the hallway, stunning 170-year-old barn wood detail in the bedroom provides a rare, historical touch. Pella double-pane windows throughout provide energy efficiency and panoramic views. This is more than a home, it's a legacy property, blending historical craftsmanship with modern convenience, nestled in nature and waiting for your touches to make this your personal lake view log home retreat.
