Back on the market at no fault of property. Step back in time with this spacious early 1900s gem, full of charm and personality! Nestled on a large lot, this home offers plenty of room to spread out with multiple living spaces, including both a cozy living room and a welcoming family room. Main level also includes a large bedroom and large laundry room. Upstairs has two bedrooms, one with a half bath. The character of the era shines through with unique details like french door, wood floors under a lot of the carpet, double closets, inset storage and the old wide wood trim with eye-catching corner blocks giving the doorways and windows a bold, custom finish. You won't find this old character in newer homes, and while it could use some TLC, it's a blank slate for you to bring your own vision to life. Enjoy the convenience of being just minutes from schools, shops, and medical offices, all while having room to grow and make it your own. The large covered front porch is so inviting along with a side and back open deck area for great outdoor entertaining space. Don't miss this rare opportunity to own a piece of history in the heart of town! Investors take note!
