$65,000

20 Acres of pristine, untouched hunting land, partially fenced and brimming with potential. This beautiful parcel features a network of trails and walking paths, winding through gently rolling hills and lush landscapes. The property is currently part of a larger parcel, and is a haven for wildlife, with thriving food plots that attract deer and turkey. Red Cedar and towering White Oak trees dot the terrain, while patches of gooseberry and blackberry bushes add to the natural charm. Buckbrush thrives in the area, and a wet weather creek is an added bonus to the idyllic setting. This is a true nature lover's paradise, ready for your hunting or recreational enjoyment!
