Don't miss this unique opportunity to own a prime piece of land at Lake of the Ozarks, offering breathtaking views and the perfect foundation for your dream home or getaway retreat. Perched to take full advantage of stunning lake vistas, this partially cleared lot offers a fantastic building grade ideal for constructing a custom lake house, barndominium, or vacation cabin. The property already includes a well-maintained 5th wheel trailer with a slide-out, providing comfortable temporary or seasonal living while you plan your future build. A 1,500-gallon water tank is also in place, offering added convenience for off-grid living or construction prep. Enjoy access to the lake through the community lot just below the property. Whether you're looking for a weekend escape, investment property, or future home site with unmatched views, this lot combines location, flexibility, and potential. Enjoy the natural beauty of the Ozarks with the added value of existing improvements all just minutes from lake access, marinas, dining, and entertainment.
