Endless business possibilities! Located right on the Square downtown Versailles. This beautiful historical landmark building could be used for any number of business ventures. Main level is open with gorgeous store front, original hardwood flooring, kitchen area, 2 bathrooms, laundry area and 3 large side rooms. Upper level could be used finished for living or opened up for additional storage. Building is served with central AC and natural gas heat. I remember this building growing up it was an amazing antique store. The main store level could be opened up completely to make a huge retail space. Buildings like this with such a great location do not become available often. Schedule your appointment today!
