The 'BIG HOUSE' Hidden Gem in Isabella - Luxury Meets Privacy Nestled off the beaten path, this remarkable estate blends seclusion with sophistication, offering a rare opportunity to own a true hidden gem. Designed by the current owner and masterfully built in 1992 by Nay Allen, the home has been meticulously maintained, reflecting timeless craftsmanship and thoughtful care. Enter through a grand foyer graced with Monticello parquet floors that set the tone for the elegance within. The family room centers around a hand-carved floral fireplace, while the heart of the home--the chef's kitchen--delivers both function and beauty. Expansive windows overlook the manicured grounds, and premium features like a SubZero refrigerator and KitchenAid appliances ensure every meal is a delight. A formal dining room and an additional formal living room create the perfect backdrop for gatherings and celebrations. The main level continues with a private office complete with custom built-ins and glass-pane doors. The serene primary suite offers a spa-like bath with a jetted soaking tub and walk-in shower. Two spacious guest bedrooms, a full bath with a sunken tub, a convenient laundry room, and an oversized two-car garage complete this level. Additional amenities include a whole-house intercom and a security system for modern ease. Descending the
