Located in the quiet and scenic Little Island neighborhood, this lakefront home offers the kind of quiet and calm that's getting harder to find. With deep water year-round, cove protection, and those big Lake of the Ozarks views, it's the ideal spot for fishing, boating, or just relaxing by the water. The home has been completely updated - featuring a brand-new kitchen, fresh flooring, paint throughout, and an enclosed bedroom for added space and function. You'll love the convenience of main-level living with the master bedroom, kitchen, living area, and laundry room all on one floor. Step outside to enjoy lake life at its best - minimal steps to the water, a large back deck perfect for morning coffee or evening drinks, and a spacious outdoor area with a firepit ready for crisp fall nights. There's also plenty of room for all your lake toys or parking with a detached 2-car garage, carport, and dedicated space for your boat trailer. Whether you're looking for a weekend retreat or full-time living, this home checks all the boxes in a truly special location. Come see everything the quiet side has to offer!
