Lake...Everyday at 292 Golfers Lane, Galena, MO, where every day begins and ends with the peaceful beauty of Table Rock Lake. This charming partial stone home offers a seasonal view of the breathtaking Virgin Bluffs and sits in a lakefront community where nature and relaxation are part of everyday life. Set on just over half an acre, the fully fenced backyard overlooks what was once a golf course, giving the land a natural, expansive feel that blends seamlessly into the surrounding countryside. Fruit trees grow in the shaded yard, and there's plenty of room for a garden in the sunny side yard. The spacious deck is the perfect spot for a hot tub, outdoor dining, or simply unwinding while you take in the view. Inside, the home welcomes you with the cozy charm of a rock fireplace and thoughtful features that make daily living comfortable. From the coat closet near the front door to the convenient circular driveway, all things were considered. Both of the two main bathrooms feature heated floors, jetted tubs, and walk-in showers, offering spa-like comfort. A third full bathroom adds extra convenience for guests or family. The kitchen is both practical and inviting, with a wall oven, refrigerator, ample cabinet space, and a breakfast bar for casual meals. Large windows fill the space with natural light and offer peaceful views of the countryside. The
