Welcome to 209 Mill St in Anderson, MO -- where your backyard is Indian Creek and your front yard is part of an established neighborhood with beautiful trees and homes. Enjoy small-town charm and incredible scenery in this home, perfectly positioned above beautiful Indian Creek. This inviting home features large decks on both levels, wall-to-wall windows in the spacious living room, and amazing views from the kitchen and dining area. Ideal for entertaining, with tons of cabinetry, generous counter space, and an open layout that keeps the conversation flowing. Recent updates in the past year include a new roof and gutters, new flooring, updated lighting and light switches, and finishing out additional living space downstairs-- giving you peace of mind and extra living space that's move-in ready. Located in a friendly small-town neighborhood, you'll love being within walking distance to the local movie theater and swimming hole. From the front, you're part of a close-knit community -- from the back, it's all river and trees. Conveniently located with a reasonable commute to Northwest Arkansas, this home offers a peaceful retreat that's still close to everything. Perfect for anyone seeking views, space, and small-town living with modern comfort. Dishwasher, Exhaust Fan
