Discover 37.55 acres of beautiful open and wooded land offering endless opportunities! This versatile property is fully fenced and ideally located with excellent highway frontage for easy access and great visibility. This property would be a great place for hunting as well. There was evidence of not only deer, but turkey as well! The mix of open spaces and timber provides the perfect setting for recreation, development, or investment. Situated close to other successful campgrounds, this prime piece of land holds incredible potential for a hobby farm, new campground, RV park, or private retreat. Don't miss this chance to own a rare find in a great location with so many possibilities!
