Check out this beautiful Missouri Ozark's 160 +/- acres just outside of Doniphan! This property has it all from 1/4 mile of lake frontage, building spots, prime proven hunting spots, and Fourche Creek runs through the property along with so many other awesome features! You will struggle to find a nicer property on a paved road anywhere around! This property has the perfect building spots that have already been leveled along with other options such as sub-dividing for houses or hunting cabins that back up to USA Forest Service property! The private lake is owned by the neighbor but this property has frontage of it with amazing cabin building spots and picnic areas! Current owners have over a decade of proven quality deer hunting on this property as well! Call today because these parcels don't last long!
