You won't find another condo with all of these wonderful attributes at this price point. Bella Sera is a top notch community and this unit is stunning. Small complex with only 20 units, no nightly rentals allowed and large floorplans! This place feels like a home but you get the beautiful community pool, a boat slip you don't have to worry about and no maintenance when you come to enjoy the lake. You even have 2 underground parking spots! How many condos have underground parking, yet alone 2 spots. Talk about convenience, park your car and take the elevator up to your unit. From there, walk in and you won't believe the size of this 3 bedroom, 3 bath showstopper. Nearly 2,000 sq ft and big living areas. The deck runs the entire length of the unit and is wedge shaped. You can see your 16X40 boat slip and 2 pwc spots with lifts which are all accessible without steps. This is a luxury condo at a bargain price. Many nice touches throughout the condo including tile floors, tile around tub in the master bath, a tiled walk in shower, beautiful wainscoting & stone interior accents. Unit comes completely furnished and really is a bargain considering all of the extra features it offers.
