This fully updated, cash-flowing short-term rental is positioned in a prime section of Downtown Branson, only one minute from Branson Landing. The property has been professionally designed from top to bottom and functions as a model unit, giving it a polished, high-quality presentation that consistently performs well in photos and in person. The walk-in condo sits on the fourth floor with convenient elevator access and a lake view that adds strong guest appeal and supports steady occupancy. Backed by multiple 5-star reviews, the unit has an established track record. The condo is sold completely furnished and fully equipped, allowing for a smooth transition with no setup time. It sleeps up to six guests, making it suitable for families, couples traveling together, or small groups. The layout is organized for comfort and durability, with materials and furnishings selected to handle regular turnover while maintaining a clean, modern look. From the balcony, guests can overlook the large, recently renovated outdoor pool. The community also offers an indoor pool and a fitness center, ensuring year-round activities regardless of the season. A private community dock adds extra recreational value, providing space for fishing or simply relaxing by the water. Its walkable location gives guests direct access to shopping, dining, and entertainment without the need
