3 Bedrooms | 3 Bathrooms | 1,800 Sqft

This inviting split-level home offers three bedrooms and two and a half bathrooms, giving everyone their own space (and saving the morning routine from becoming a negotiation). The layout provides a natural flow between living areas, making it easy to imagine both lively gatherings and quiet nights in. Out back, you'll find a large, partially covered deck perfect for morning coffee in the shade, evening grilling sessions, or keeping the party going even when a light Missouri drizzle rolls in. The fenced-in yard is ready for pets, playtime, or that garden you swear you'll start this year. Downstairs, the lower-level garage is more than just a place to park. With extra storage and a workshop area, it's ideal for projects, hobbies, or finally organizing all the items you'll need this someday. Living just steps from the city park and community pool means spontaneous evening walks, summer swims, and front-row seats to community fun no packing the car required. Comfortable, convenient, and just a little fun, this isn't just a house; it's where everyday life gets a little easier and weekends get a lot better!
