Lakefront property with a community dock slip in a protected cove with a main channel view listed below $500,000? This must be a typo. Nope. This is not a typo -- this is a 3 bedroom, 2 bathroom lakefront home with an open floor plan, screened-in deck and lake views that have to be seen to be believed -- listed at $499,000.00. Plenty of storage and plenty of parking, but if you need more of either, there's a vacant lot across the street that comes with the house and a detached garage or storage building could easily be constructed. The roof is only six years old and in great shape, too. If lakefront ownership has felt out of reach, this is your moment! Don't let this chance pass you by.
