Rustic, timeless, and effortlessly inviting, the log cabin has long been an iconic symbol of life on Table Rock Lake and within the Mark Twain National Forest. Perched quietly atop a gentle hill just above the pristine shoreline, this charming log home--affectionately named Magnolia--embodies relaxed lake living while showcasing exceptional craftsmanship and meticulous care. Surrounded by nature yet only minutes from downtown Shell Knob's shopping and dining, Magnolia offers the perfect balance of privacy, serenity, and convenience. From the moment you arrive, the welcoming covered entry draws you inside to a spacious open-concept living area--fondly known as "The Honeymoon Suite." This stunning space features soaring ceilings, massive exposed log beams, and warm tongue-and-groove pine walls throughout. A thoughtfully designed Murphy bed adds versatility, making the living area ideal for hosting guests while maintaining comfort and charm. Step outside and embrace the lifestyle that sets this property apart. Enjoy the privacy of natural surroundings along with access to community amenities including a pool and scenic hiking paths. Just steps from the cabin is your very own 10x28 boat slip, included in the price--making spontaneous lake days effortless and unforgettable. Whether you're boating, hiking, or simply relaxing on the porch
