This 428 +/- acre hunting and recreational paradise in Wayne County, Missouri sits just off Hwy 34 near Piedmont and offers the perfect blend of timber, open fields, and established wildlife habitat. Whether you're looking for a private getaway, hunting retreat, or land investment, this property checks all the boxes. The land features a diverse mix of timber, open fields, and strategically placed food plots that help attract and hold wildlife year-round. Multiple deer box blinds are already set up. The area is well known for its abundant whitetail deer and turkey population, and the layout of the property creates ideal travel corridors and bedding areas. With its size and natural diversity, the property provides plenty of space for hunting, trail riding, hiking, or simply enjoying the outdoors. The combination of timber and open ground also offers opportunities for habitat management and long-term land investment. Conveniently located just minutes from Piedmont with easy access from Highway 34, this property delivers both privacy and accessibility in the heart of Southeast Missouri.
