2 Bedrooms | 1 Bathroom | 1,080 Sqft

New construction with character you simply can't fake this Amish-built log cabin delivers warmth, craftsmanship, and a view that steals the show. Designed to feel like the perfect lake escape, the home offers 2 sleeping areas with 1 main-level bedroom plus a spacious 15x24 loft, along with a full bathroom and soaring vaulted ceilings that make the interior feel open and inviting. Natural wood finishes and authentic log construction give it that true cabin feel buyers are looking for. Step outside to the huge covered deck where the outstanding lake view becomes the backdrop for morning coffee, evening dinners, and everything in between. Whether you're looking for a weekend getaway, investment opportunity, or low-maintenance full-time retreat, this property offers that hard-to-find blend of new construction and rustic charm. Lake access is easy with a nearby boat ramp, making days on the water simple and convenient. If you've been looking for a place with personality, craftsmanship, and a view worth showing off this one stands out.
