The views are outstanding from this "standout" home. This rich, tuscan inspired home shows as if it were featured in a magazine. Located in an established gated community, tucked inside a protected cove area, level street entry and gentle lakeside with magnificent views set the bar high on this property. Inside, walls of glass frame the beautiful lake views. The openness of the living, dining & kitchen areas allow for easy entertainment. Step outside to the covered deck along with open deck all with trex decking. The beautiful master suite with remote controlled window coverings and tray lighting connects to a spacious master bath with dual vanities and large closet. Downstairs you will find an additional living area with bar, two additional bedrooms, one with a murphy bed, a very large storage area, a large bathroom with walk in tiled shower, and as an added bonus there is a huge immaculate shop area every man would dream of. The shop area is heated, cooled and plumbed, so could also be a second master suite if one chooses to remodel. You will love the gentle grassy lot, the lower cozy patios and the cove protected dock.
