1/2 ACRE NEAR POMME - YOUR WEEKEND HEADQUARTERS STARTS HERE This is the kind of spot where Friday afternoon turns into Sunday evening way too fast. Half an acre, partially cleared, just minutes from Pomme de Terre Lake. Pull the camper in. Sketch the barndo plans. Build the cabin with the big porch and string lights. Or just hold it and watch the area keep heating up. You wake up, coffee in hand, air crisp, boat waiting. Ten minutes later you're on the water chasing bass, tubing with the kids, or drifting in a quiet cove pretending your phone doesn't exist. No HOA drama. No concrete jungle. Just trees, fresh air, and options. Enough space to build, camp, or set up your weekend basecamp Quick lake access without lakefront prices Strong demand area that keeps getting more attention every season Affordable dirt this close to Pomme is getting scarce. The smart buyers aren't overthinking it... they're securing their spot and figuring out the rest later. If you've been saying, 'We need a lake place,' this is your sign.
