This 39+/- acre tract of raw land offers a great opportunity to build your dream home, create a weekend getaway, or invest in recreational property. The land features gently rolling hills with several excellent potential building sites that provide privacy and scenic views. Power is already on-site, making future development easier and more convenient. The property also offers excellent hunting potential, with natural habitat that attracts wildlife and provides a great outdoor experience. With no land restrictions, you have the flexibility to build a home, cabin, barndominium, or simply enjoy the land for recreation. If you're looking for a versatile piece of land with endless possibilities, this property is a must-see. Opportunities like this don't come along often--schedule a showing today before it's gone.
