Welcome to your very own Ozarks escape, where the trees outnumber the neighbors and the living is gloriously easy. Sitting on 2.74 acres of rolling Missouri beauty, this four-bedroom, two-and-a-half-bath retreat offers the kind of space most people only daydream about during their Monday commute. The two-story layout features double living rooms -- because one just wasn't cutting it -- with upper vaulted ceilings that let natural light pour in like it owns the place. The open floor plan centers around a superb kitchen that flows right into the main living area, making it ideal for entertaining or pretending you're hosting your own cooking show. Step outside and take in the curb appeal that'll have your guests jealous before they even make it through the front door. The property serves up water views that remind you exactly why lake life called your name. And speaking of lake life, a ten-by-twenty-four-foot boat slip with lift and locker is available separately for anyone ready to fully commit to the Table Rock Lake lifestyle. (10' x 24' slip with lift and locker $65,000) Need a workspace? A brand new detached shop building with its own separate electric is standing by for projects, hobbies, or strategic alone time.
