$159,000

Positioned on a ridge overlooking the sparkling waters of Table Rock Lake, this rare buildable lot offers sweeping, unobstructed views and the freedom to create your own short-term rental investment. Located in an intimate enclave of just six homes, the setting is peaceful, private, and perfectly suited for either a personal retreat or income-producing getaway. Enjoy access to green space, a shared community pool, and a location just minutes from local marinas and attractions. With STR approval already in place, you can skip the red tape and move straight into planning your custom lakeview escape. Whether you're building for cash flow or creating a second home with income potential, this lot delivers on both lifestyle and investment opportunity. (Taxes do not accurately reflect the lot alone; sellers have recently parceled off this lot from the home.)
