Located just outside Joplin, Missouri, this Newton County property is a true sportsman's paradise. There is ample room to hunt, fish, and enjoy the great outdoors on this 127 +/- acres tract. Early morning turkey gobbles echo through the bottoms, and upon driving up over the hill, multiple deer could be seen headed into the timber. The property has proven big buck history, which can be viewed in the harvest pictures of this listing. When coming down the drive, you are met with two large, 2-3 acre ponds, both stocked with bass, bluegill, crappie, and catfish. Enjoy incredible views from around the water's edge as you let the Zebco fly. Follow the trail up over the hill, and you have multiple spots to place a deer blind overlooking the valley. Continue south, and you are met with a tributary creek that runs year-round and feeds into Shoal Creek. Enjoy the gorgeous view on the bluff overlooking the creek, or head down to an access point to beautiful Shoal Creek on the south end of the property. This secluded sportsman's paradise is surrounded by development and only minutes from amenities. Build cabins or your dream home and enjoy the great outdoors, only minutes from the hustle and bustle of Joplin, Missouri. This truly is a rare and diverse property with endless opportunities!
