If you've been on the hunt for a slice of the Ozarks that can facilitate all of your needs; 1619 Stone Road in between Noel and Southwest City in Southwest McDonald County stands a good chance of checking those boxes. The property consists of 40 rolling and wooded acres (minus the road and powerline), features a 600+ square foot cabin with 1 bedroom and 1 bath, plenty of wildlife and a secluded valley on the north side that is home to a wet weather creek as well as a couple of beautiful springs. If privacy, potential and adventure are what you're into, you should come check this one out.
