This parcel in Eastern Douglas County offers secluded tranquility. There is a old farm stead from days gone by with a barn and chicken coop still standing and usable. There is paved highway access to the property with a existing drive lined with cedar and pine trees. There is some open pasture along with hardwood, cedar, and scattered Pine. There is a great building spot and there are no restrictions. There is power available with the utility easement on the property. This property has lots of wildlife and is close to floatable streams for fishing and recreation. Property is located 30 minutes from West Plains to the East and 30 minutes from Ava to the West. This is the perfect acreage for that cabin or camper in the woods. Property has been surveyed and flagged.
