Discover your own private retreat in the heart of the South-Central Missouri Ozarks! This gently rolling property offers a perfect blend of natural beauty and seclusion, featuring a wet-weather creek and abundant timber. Whether you're dreaming of building your forever home or creating a recreational getaway, this land provides endless possibilities. Bordered on three sides by the Mark Twain National Forest, you'll have direct access to thousands of acres of pristine wilderness for hiking, camping, and exploring. Outdoor enthusiasts will love the proximity to Bull Shoals and Norfolk Lakes, as well as several scenic rivers including the Little North Fork of the White River, Little Piney, Jack's Fork, and Eleven Point--ideal for fishing, floating, and kayaking. The surrounding Ozarks region is rich with natural springs, historic mills like Alley Spring Mill and Hodgson Water Mill, and breathtaking parks. Explore caves, waterfalls, and countless trails, all just a short drive away. Hunting opportunities abound on this property, with plentiful deer and turkey making it a prime spot for your next trophy. This is more than land--it's a lifestyle. Come experience the unmatched beauty and outdoor recreation the Missouri Ozarks has to offer!
