Discover this 121+/- acres of prime hunting/recreational land. Located at the end of a dead end road, the privacy and seclusion is top notch. It corners the government land making it a haven for deer, turkey, and other wildlife. There are roads throughout the property, built specifically for all area of the acreage to be hunted as well as a small clearing near the wet weather creek that could be prepared as a food plot. Two wet weather creeks run on each end of the property. This will make a fantastic hunting property or provide the privacy someone who is hoping to explore off the grid living is looking for. Electric availability is near. This property has recently been logged.
