Welcome to your own private retreat with approx. 65 ac. of timber and cleared meadows to enjoy hunting or walking trails. There is a spring fed creek running through the property, a pavilion is located on the edge of the creek. This one owner home was custom built with many unique features including a hot tub and sauna located just off the master suite. From the large covered front porch you enter the great room with a tray ceiling, wood burning fireplace and lovely bookcases. The kitchen includes a center island snack bar, stainless appliances and tile flooring plus a walk-in pantry. The master suite includes a fireplace and is on the main floor. The additional bedrooms are in the walk-out basement with an additional living space and storage. Enjoy evenings or mornings on the screened in deck plus an unscreened deck area also. A wet water creek flows at the back of the home and provides additional fun for this property located so near shopping, schools and hospitals yet so private!
