Blending nostalgic charm with modern convenience, this vintage Ozarks farm is gracefully situated in southern Missouri near Houston. A peaceful retreat that captures the spirit of yesteryear, this 71 acre gem offers highway frontage and sits down a tree lined driveway to your very own private paradise. With must see stunning rock formations and a nice producing spring, this is a true Ozarks charmer. The one-of-a-kind warm, welcoming, and comfortable home offers over 2300 sq ft of living space with 2 bedrooms, 2 baths, 2 car garage, large living room with beamed ceiling, pine floors salvaged from an 1800's barn, farmhouse style kitchen with authentic porcelain farm sink and antique store counter island, expansive family room with rock fireplace, a welcoming covered front porch and a spacious deck overlooking a bluegill and bass stocked pond. Once a working hog and dairy farm, as most Ozarks farms were in days gone by, many of the 1940 structures remain and in use today including a large barn, loafing shed, livestock barn, equipment shed with shop, granary, hog barn, springhouse, chicken coop and garden shed. With approximately 1/2 pasture and 1/2 wooded with mature oak and walnut, this gorgeous nostalgic farm is ideal for wildlife and possible livestock operation. 3 ponds, fenced and cross fenced, with good grass that
