Here's your opportunity, and it's a good one!! 284 Storm Cove sits on an oversized lot with an additional adjacent parcel included, giving you the kind of space, privacy, and long-term flexibility that homes at this price point rarely come with. A newer metal roof, fresh paved driveway, updated flooring, blown insulation, gutter guards, refreshed bathrooms, newer appliances, and years of steady, thoughtful improvements add up to something buyers can feel the moment they walk through the door. This isn't a flip. This is a home that's been lived in and looked after, and it shows. The location alone makes this worth a serious look. Storm Cove is a highly sought-after address, and this property puts you right in the middle of everything the Lake of the Ozarks area has to offer. Whether you're a family ready to plant roots in a home that's truly move-in ready, or a buyer looking for a smart, low-maintenance long-term rental investment, the pieces are already in place. The work is done, the lot is generous, and the value is real. Properties like this well-kept, updated, and priced right don't stay available long in this market. Come take a look before someone else does.
