Travel beneath the wooden archway and feel the pace of life slow down. Set on over 90 acres of beautiful Missouri countryside, this charming log home offers the privacy, space, and peaceful setting so many are searching for. Inside, exposed beams, natural light, and a cozy fireplace create the perfect blend of rustic character and comfort. The main level features a primary bedroom with private bath and walk-in closet, plus a custom kitchen with double oven, generous counter space, breakfast bar, and plenty of cabinet storage. Upstairs, the loft makes a great kids space, playroom, or extra sleeping area. The finished basement offers a large bonus room ideal for family gatherings, hobbies, or additional bedroom space. Outside, enjoy morning coffee or evening sunsets from the wraparound deck. The barn/shop provides room for equipment, animals, storage, or projects. With abundant wildlife, hunting opportunities, and room for family and four-legged friends, this is your chance to relax and live in the peace and quiet of the country. Would be a great hunting resort as well or bring your own ideas.
