This is a Beautiful, large home in a country subdivision on a little over an acre that includes an above-ground pool and a separate shop within a stone's throw of Lake of the Ozarks, MO. The property comes with an extra lot that has been enjoyed for separation from neighbors, but could be sold or built on in the future. The home has wonderful amenities, including a large deck out back, partially covered and sporting a great view of the wooded back yard past the house...There is a swimming pool and a large shop behind the house...In front, there is extra parking and a two-car attached garage included...Inside the home, it is tastefully decorated with quality finishes in every room. There is a cozy wood fireplace that accentuates the living space and gives a very homey feel. The kitchen, dining, and living are all open to each other, so the conversation could flow in the room in a very open way. If you are looking for lots of space, a nice property, a shop, a pool, and lots of quiet - come and take a look - your own little Shangri-La- a remote and idyllic paradise. And very affordable, too...
