At some point, weekends at the lake start to feel too short and you catch yourself wanting a place that's always there. Mornings begin on the balcony with calm water and coffee in hand. Afternoons drift between the pool and shoreline, and by evening, everything slows down. Tucked into a quiet no-wake cove at Eagle Bay, this 2BR/2BA condo carries a clean, modern feel throughout. The kitchen opens up with quartz countertops, stainless steel appliances, and a large island that naturally becomes the gathering spot. Thoughtful touches like the hidden barn door to the laundry/pantry and a tiled shower with rain head in the primary suite add character you don't often find in this price range. Step outside to your private balcony overlooking the pool and wooded lakefront. Just steps to the water, with a community dock for fishing or unwinding. Eagle Bay is a 24-unit community with no rentals, creating a quieter, more personal lake experience. And for those used to renting weekends or weeks it starts to shift your perspective. Owning your own place at the lake close to restaurants, shopping, and the Bagnell Dam Strip just begins to make more sense. The kind of place that's hard to leave
