Discover the perfect setting for your dream home or private getaway! This exceptional property features a scenic ridge-top homesite with breathtaking panoramic views stretching for miles, with the back of the property overlooking the beautiful North Fork River. Imagine starting your mornings on the back porch, sipping coffee while overlooking the river, and ending your days with gorgeous sunsets painting the sky. The open terrain offers plenty of space for horses, making it an ideal horse property with room to ride, roam, and build to suit your lifestyle. Enjoy direct access to the river for fishing, kayaking, and endless outdoor recreation. Located just around the corner from Dawt Mill, a historic riverside destination featuring a restaurant, bar, live music, cabins, and a popular launch point for floating the river, you'll have entertainment and relaxation close at hand. Plus, you're only minutes from Caney Mountain Conservation Area, offering thousands of acres for hiking, hunting, and exploring the outdoors. Despite its peaceful, private setting, everyday conveniences are within easy reach -- Mountain Home is just 30 minutes away, offering shopping, dining, medical services, and more. Seller would consider splitting. Acreage is approximate; a survey will determine the final amount. Property is being offered as part of a larger tract, and taxes will be adjusted
