44 m/l acres of land for sale in Southern Missouri. Welcome to the Ozarks. This property features a diverse mix of hay ground, open pasture, and mature wooded acreage. This versatile land offers opportunities for farming, cattle, hunting, recreation, or building a homestead with no restrictions. The property includes rolling terrain, abundant wildlife, a seasonal creek, and a pond, creating an appealing setting for outdoor enthusiasts, hobby farmers, or those seeking country living. Multiple potential building sites throughout the property can provide privacy, scenic views, or flexibility for a farm operation setup. Whether you are searching for your own private hunting land, recreational acreage, pasture/livestock ground, hay production operation or building your next home, this clear/wooded combo acreage offers it in a desirable Southern Missouri setting. Smaller acreage lots available.
