If you've been looking for that true turnkey lake house where you can show up and immediately start enjoying the lake life, this is it. This beautifully remodeled 3 bed, 2 bath lakefront home has been thoughtfully updated and comes fully furnished with high-end furnishings, making it completely move-in ready from day one. One of the best features of the home is the incredible expanded living space with the screened-in glass area that feels like an extension of the kitchen and living room. It's the perfect spot for morning coffee, family dinners, game nights, or simply relaxing while taking in the lake views year-round. Outside, the lake setup is hard to beat. The dock has room for 2 boats and 2 jet skis, giving you plenty of space for entertaining friends and family and making the most of every lake weekend. The brand new composite decking adds even more outdoor space with low-maintenance convenience. Located on blacktop roads all the way to the home, access is easy and convenient year-round. Short-term rentals are allowed, making this property an amazing opportunity whether you are looking for a personal lake retreat, a full-time home, or an investment property.
