$319,900

Own a remarkable piece of Southern Missouri's historic Bear Creek Valley with this scenic 46-acre tract. It offers privacy, wildlife and incredible valley views. Mostly wooded and rich with Ozark character, this property overlooks both Bear Creek and Bear Creek Valley and provides the perfect setting for a private estate, hunting retreat or recreational getaway. A pond, historic logging road and the remnants of an old dairy barn add to the property's unique history and charm. Imagine building your dream home overlooking the valley and stepping out your back door to hunt, hike or explore your own wooded acreage. Abundant wildlife and natural cover make this tract an excellent hunting haven while still offering beautiful homesite potential. With Reno Springs paved road frontage and additional adjoining land available, opportunities like this are increasingly rare.
