If you've been looking for the ultimate blank canvas for your next venture on the west side, then look no further! Located conveniently minutes down the road from Laurie, with over 300 ft of road frontage, gentle topography, and four plus acres of unencumbered land, this property's future is your desire! Whether looking to build a home with space, but not too far from town, or looking to build additional structures for storage or investment, this piece offers a blend of location and privacy that is unmatched. With the ability to also hook into the Gravois Arm sewer district, this property mitigates its own costs, reducing your overall build budget and increasing your opportunities! With extensive exposure in a growing area, the potential for this property is only limited by your imagination. Don't make a move you regret by passing on this piece, and call in today before the opportunity is gone!
