Discover the possibilities with this exceptional 160-acre property comprised of four separate parcels, offering the perfect blend of productive land, investment potential, and endless opportunities. Approximately 32 acres have been cleared, including 13 acres of established planted grapevines, making this an ideal property for a vineyard, winery expansion, agricultural operation, or private estate. Improvements include a 40' x 30' metal barn with electricity and a private well already in place, providing a solid foundation for future development. With a combination of open acreage and wooded land, this unique property offers privacy, recreation, hunting, and multiple potential building sites. Whether you're looking to continue its agricultural legacy, create a destination property, or invest in large acreage in the heart of the Lake of the Ozarks area, this is a rare opportunity with incredible potential.
