Set among mature trees in a well-established Four Seasons neighborhood known for friendly neighbors, a great place to walk and close access to town. This Prairie-style home delivers comfortable main-level living with high ceilings and great natural light. The remodeled kitchen shines with quartz countertops, generous cabinetry, and bar seating, open to the living room, dining area, and private screened porch. The main-floor primary suite features separate double vanities, a makeup counter with wonderful lighting, a soaking tub, walk-in shower and large his and her walk-in closets. Additionally, the main level has an office/guest room, half bath, and laundry room with drop zone off the oversized three-car garage. Downstairs, the walk-out lower level offers family room, a second primary suite, two bedrooms, full bath and two flexible non-conforming rooms and storage. Walkout deck off family room gives access to the exterior entrance to an additional 550 sq. ft. finished bonus space with a half bath ideal for a private office, gym, or workshop. Recent updates include fresh interior paint along with a new main-level AC and water heater (2025).
