Hunting Property Bordering the National Forest This exceptional 43+/- acre wooded property offers a rare opportunity to own a secluded tract surrounded by natural beauty and unmatched access to public land. Featuring mature timber, rolling ridges, and scenic views, the land provides a diverse landscape ideal for recreation, hunting, or a private retreat. One of the most striking features of the property is its bluffs overlooking Hurricane Creek, creating dramatic views and a peaceful setting. The land also includes three natural caves, adding character and unique exploration opportunities rarely found on properties of this size. What truly sets this property apart is its location. National Forest borders the land on three sides, giving you direct access to thousands of additional acres for hunting, hiking, and outdoor adventure. This creates the feel of owning far more land while maintaining the privacy and seclusion many buyers are seeking. Electric is already on the property, adding convenience for future improvements, and there are multiple ways to access the land, offering flexibility for building sites or recreational use. Whether you envision a cabin, hunting camp, or simply a place to escape, this property provides numerous options. Located less than one mile from Falling Springs on the Eleven Point River and under five miles from
