Escape to the beauty of the Missouri Ozarks with this 33+/- acre wooded tract featuring frontage on scenic Bryant Creek, one of the area's most popular spring-fed waterways. Tucked away on a quiet gravel road, this property offers the privacy and seclusion you've been looking for. The land includes a mix of level to gently sloping ground near the entrance, while the balance features steeper terrain that remains walkable and adds to the property's rugged Ozarks character. Whether you're looking for a recreational getaway, a place to camp, hunt, or build a secluded cabin, this property offers plenty of possibilities. Enjoy excellent wildlife habitat along with fishing, floating, kayaking, and swimming on crystal-clear Bryant Creek. If you've been searching for a peaceful retreat where you can enjoy both the woods and the water, this property is well worth a look.
