Welcome to one of Laclede County's most thoughtfully restored and exceptionally maintained country estates. A true labor of love, this remarkable estate reflects years of thoughtful improvements while preserving its natural beauty and historic character. This 66+ acre country estate offers the perfect balance of privacy, peaceful living, & recreation. Thoughtful care and craftsmanship are evident throughout this one-of-a-kind property, highlighted by a meticulously maintained 3,200+ sq. ft. brick ranch with a finished walkout basement that captures picturesque views of the countryside. A gated entrance and quarter-mile tree-lined drive creates a memorable arrival while enhancing the property's privacy and charm. Outside, you'll find a beautiful blend of mature hardwood timber, complemented by open pasture, scenic ponds, trails, abundant wildlife, a historic barn, and a 20' x 40' pole barn. Located near Bennett Spring State Park, or Lake of the Ozarks two premiere recreation destinations. Whether you're searching for a family home, hobby farm, or legacy property to enjoy for generations, this is a rare opportunity to own one of Laclede County's finest properties.
