What if your next property didn't make you choose between privacy, recreation, and opportunity? Welcome to 62196 Highway C in Hight Point Missouri! Tucked away in the back of the property, the existing multi-use home provides the privacy buyers are searching for. With over 10 acres and no restrictions, you have the freedom to build that family compound you've been dreaming of, another shop, or simply enjoy the property as is. The infrastructure is already here with a private well, septic system, and electricity, so you can enjoy the property immediately. High Point offers a unique advantage, and that is the option to choose the School District that meets your family needs when your students are ready for high school.
