Some homes work for where you are today. Others give you room for where life takes you next. From the moment you walk inside, you'll notice an open and inviting layout that feels comfortable, functional, and ready for whatever comes next. Whether it's hosting family and friends, creating a hobby space, setting up a home office, or simply having room to spread out at the end of the day, the additional living space offers flexibility that's hard to find. Recent utility updates provide added peace of mind, allowing you to focus less on maintenance and more on enjoying your home. Located just minutes from shopping, dining, fitness centers, schools, and everyday conveniences, you'll enjoy the balance of being close to everything while still having a place to unwind. One of the property's most unique features is the creek that runs behind the home, creating a natural backdrop where wildlife is often seen passing through. It's not every day you find a setting that offers both convenience and a connection to nature. Every home tells a story, and this one offers the opportunity to make it your own.
