Charming 75-Acre Retreat Near James River Nestled in a peaceful, convenient location just minutes from the James River, this stunning 75-acre property m/l offers a perfect blend of country living and modern comfort. Whether you're an outdoor enthusiast who enjoys hunting or simply seeking a serene escape, this property has it all. The main home features a spacious layout with 3 bedrooms and 1 bath, complemented by sleek granite countertops in the kitchen. Enjoy plenty of room to spread out with two inviting living areas, perfect for both relaxation and entertaining. Natural light pours through the windows, offering beautiful views of the surrounding landscape. Pine Run Creek meanders through the property, adding an enchanting touch to the already picturesque setting. A charming cedar cabin with bunk beds sits by the creek, accessible via a delightful walkover bridge or a drive up lane -- an ideal spot for peaceful getaways or hosting guests. For your vehicles and hobbies, there's a convenient 1-car attached deep garage and an additional 33 X 42 3-car detached garage. The property also boasts two lush bottomland pastures, 3 cleared ridge tops for more pasture, perfect for livestock or other recreational activities. A winding, private driveway leads you to the home, ensuring privacy and tranquility, while still being easily accessible.
