Escape to the rolling Ozark Hills and discover forty breathtaking acres of wooded seclusion just waiting for your vision. This newly listed property offers a rare opportunity to own a substantial piece of southern Missouri's most stunning landscape, where towering hardwoods canopy the terrain and wildlife roams freely across the land. Nature lovers and outdoor enthusiasts will appreciate the property's proximity to both Bryant Creek and legendary Northfork River, renowned for their crystal-clear waters and world class trout fishing. Whether you are casting a line at sunrise or paddling through gentle currents on a summer day, adventure is practically at your doorstep. A charming wet weather creek meanders through the acreage, adding character and natural beauty to this already picturesque setting. Take a tour today!
