Imagine waking up on your own 12 acres +/-, sipping coffee on the porch as the sun rises over the trees, and knowing you're less than half a mile from launching your boat onto Pomme de Terre Lake. This custom-built home wasn't rushed. It was crafted with intention, quality, and comfort at the heart of every detail. Vaulted ceilings, rich woodwork, and warm natural light create an inviting feeling the moment you step inside. Bordering Corp land and wrapped in mature trees, the setting is private, peaceful, and the kind of quiet country living that feels good for the soul. With Pittsburg State Park just down the road, lake days and outdoor adventures are always close by. For buyers searching for lake homes near Pomme de Terre Lake, acreage, custom construction, hobby shops, RV storage, horse friendly land, or a spacious country property, this home shines online. The kitchen features granite countertops, a large island, soft close cabinetry, double wall ovens, dishwasher, and a generous walk-in pantry. This 3-bedroom, 3 bath home offers an attached garage with a concrete safe room, a fenced yard, and a covered back porch with ceiling fans overlooking the acreage. The outdoor improvements make this property truly unique. A large, insulated shop offers overhead doors, electric, LED lighting, and a built-in workbench. Multiple carports and an RV
